

Documents on Diplomacy: Exercises

Key Themes in the Federalist Papers

Key themes appear in Federalist No. 4 and Federalist No. 64, written by John Jay under the pseudonym, "Publius". Not every theme will appear in each document, but the possibilities are endless. Record descriptions of ideas that fit each theme after studying the documents.

THEME	FEDERALIST NO. 4	FEDERALIST NO. 64
1. Safety of the People
2. National Interests
3. Making War
4. Navigation and Trade
5. One National Government
6. Making of Treaties
7. 13 Independent Governments
8. Terms of Peace
9. Power of President/Senator
10. Corruption/Unworthy Conduct		